

App: Artpress (Art Expression) Pitch:

This is an application that is used for artist to create and submit their art to the web and utilize the idea of self expression.

Description:

This application can be utilized by both professional and unprofessional artists. However, it is mainly geared to those that are not necessarily aimed to receive recognition, but more of a stress reliever. It is where people are able to express themselves in various ways and can share it with others who enjoy the same hobby.

Katie the Kid

Middle-schooler interested in comics and anime art. Likes to make fan fiction of Twilight characters

Glenda the Pro

Is a professional artist that uses multiple platforms to gain product awareness.

Jake the Troublemaker

Loner that is often kept to himself.